Instructions for the D-40

To complete your D-40 return, you will need to do a series of calculations contained in these instructions and copy many of the line items and totals on your D-40. You may also need to attach DC schedules, forms and worksheets to your D-40 if you complete any of the DC forms. Unless instructed otherwise, if you complete any part of any Schedules H, I, N, S, or U, attach it to your return, in the order defined in General Instructions, page 12.

Schedule H, Homeowners and Renter Property Tax Credit.

This schedule allows eligible residents to claim a property tax credit against their DC income tax liability. The total 2014 federal adjusted gross income (AGI) of your "tax filing unit" cannot exceed $40,000 (under age 70) or $60,000 (age 70 or older). Do not claim this credit for an exempt property owned by a government, a house of worship or a non-profit organization. See Schedule H in this booklet.

Note: If you are filing a D-40, you must file DC Schedule H with it. If you are not required to file a D-40 (or D-40EZ), the DC Schedule H can be filed by itself.

Schedule I, Additions to and Subtractions from Federal AGI.

This schedule contains two calculations, one for additions and another for subtractions from federal AGI. See Schedule I in this booklet.

If you took the 30% or 50% federal bonus depreciation and/or the additional Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 179 expenses on your federal return, enter the total on Schedule I, Calculation A, Line 3.

Schedule N. DC Non-Custodial Parent EITC Claim.

Use this schedule to determine whether a non-custodial parent making court-ordered child support payments may claim the DC EITC. See Schedule N in this booklet.

Schedule S, Supplemental Information and Dependents.

If claiming dependents, use Schedule S to list each dependent's name, social security number (SSN), relationship and date of birth (DOB). If filing head of household use Schedule S to report dependents or other qualifying non-dependent person. Do not include an exemption for the qualifying non-dependent person. Calculation G is used to determine the number of exemptions you may claim. Calculation J is used to determine the DC tax amount for married or registered domestic partners filing separately on the same return. You may also use Schedule S to claim an exemption for yourself or your spouse/registered domestic partner for being blind and/or over 65.

Schedule U also includes the amount DC taxpayers may claim as a credit for individual income tax paid to other state(s) if the income taxed by that state is derived from that state and that income would be taxable in DC is of a kind taxed by DC. The tax paid to a state is the total state tax liability shown on the state tax return. (It is not the state withholding shown on your Form W-2.) The credit is limited to the rate of tax charged in the District.

Schedule U, Additional Miscellaneous Credits and Contributions.

This schedule lists certain additional non-refundable and refundable credits you may be able to claim. It also lists several contributions funds to which you may wish to contribute. See Schedule U in this booklet.

Credit for certain DC Government employees who are DC residents and first-time DC homebuyers.

This $2,000 credit is available to all DC government employees, employees of a DC public charter school, and any person who has accepted an offer to be a DC police officer, firefighter, emergency medical technician, public school teacher or a teacher at a DC public charter school. Except for DC police officers, the tax credit is limited to those employees who purchased their first principal residence in DC on or after October 1, 2007, and who are enrolled in the Employer Assisted Housing Program (EAHP) offered by the DC Department of Housing and Community Development. The credit is available for a 5-year period. Enter $2,000 on Schedule U, Part 1a, Line 1.

Schedule U also includes the amount DC taxpayers may claim as a credit for individual income tax paid to other state(s) if the income taxed by that state is derived from that state and is of a kind taxed by DC. If tax paid to a state is the total state tax liability shown on the state tax return. (It is not the state withholding shown on your Form W-2.)

Complete Calculation K on page 19, to determine your out of state credit. Enter the credit amount on Schedule U, Part 1a, Line 3. If you paid tax to more than one state, enter the respective amounts and other state codes in the spaces provided.

Part-Year Residents

NOTE: A temporary absence (even a lengthy one) from your permanent home does not make you a part-year resident. If filing as a part-year resident, you will be given guidance for completing your D-40 throughout these instructions.

You are a part-year DC resident if, during the year, you moved out of DC with the intent to permanently leave or moved into DC with the intent to permanently stay.

A DC taxpayer domiciled in DC during the tax year, is a full-time DC resident unless he or she changes domicile during the tax year. In such case, he or she will be a part-year resident for the period not domiciled in DC.

A DC taxpayer present in DC for 183 days or more and not domiciled in DC during the tax year is a part-time resident for the period present in DC. Number of months of DC residency. Divide the number of days lived in DC by 30 to determine the number of months of residency. Any remainder over 15 days counts as a full month.

Example: 196 days of residency in DC divided by 30 = 7 months (6 months plus one month due to the 16 day remainder).

"Domicile" is where a person has his or her permanent home. To change domicile, you have to abandon the previous domicile and establish a new one in another state with the intent to remain. If you resided in DC for only part of 2014, allocate your DC income and deductions attributable to the time of your DC residency. Also prorate your exemptions and credits.

If DC was your home or permanent residence for less than a year, fill in the oval on Line 2 of the D-40, complete the applicable months in the "from" and "to" boxes, and enter the number of months in DC. Complete Calculation C for standard deduction and Calculation D for DC itemized deductions showing the type and amount of income received:

- During the time you resided in DC;
- During the time you were a non-resident; and
- The total income reported on your federal return.

Before completing the D-40, calculate the following:

- Income received when you were a resident of DC, and when you resided outside of DC; and
- Deductible expenses paid when you resided in DC and when you resided outside of DC. The same allocation is required for exemptions, credits, and other deductions.

If you received a state income tax refund while not a resident of DC; do not include it in DC income.

If you claimed itemized deductions on your federal income tax return, include, for DC purposes, only those relating to the time you were a DC resident. Your federal worksheet will assist you in completing Schedule I (Calculations A and B) and Calculation D (if applicable). Keep a copy of your worksheet, a copy of your tax return and all calculations.

If you resided in DC for only part of 2014, allocate your DC income and deductions attributable to the time of your DC residency. Also prorate your exemptions and credits.

Standard deduction for part-year DC residents. Adjust your standard deduction to reflect the number of months you were a DC resident. Complete Calculation C on page 20.

Itemized deductions for part-year DC residents. If your DC AGI is $200,000 or less and you were a part-year resident, complete Calculation D on page 20.

Itemized deductions. Do not copy the amount from your federal return. DC amounts are different from those allowed on your federal return.

Clarification: To the extent that a taxpayer's itemized deductions are limited at the federal level because IRS Form 1040 Line 38 is greater than $150,000, only the pro rata amount of the state and local tax deduction that was actually allowed after the limitation, should be subtracted from the federal Schedule A Line 29 amount. The only time 100% of the state and local taxes should be subtracted from the federal itemized deductions allowed is when the amount on Line 38 of the Form 1040 is equal to or less than $150,000.

If your DC AGI is $200,000 or less, complete Calculation F on page 22. DC income taxes paid are not deductible on your DC return. Therefore, reduce your federal itemized deductions amount by those taxes before entering the total on your DC return.

Effective January 1, 2011, DC Official Code §47-1803.03 (b-4) provides that certain DC itemized deductions of DC taxpayers with over $200,000 of DC AGI ($100,000 for a separate return filed by a married individual) will be limited. Reduce the DC itemized deduction amount by 5% of DC AGI in excess of $200,000 ($100,000 for a separate return filed by a married individual). The itemized deductions that are not subject to the 5% limitation are medical and dental expenses, expenses incurred in the production of investment interest and casualty or theft loss deduction.

If your DC deductions are limited, complete Calculation F on page 22.

Married or registered domestic partners filing separately on the same return
Before completing Calculation J, the tax computation, on Schedule S, you must determine each person's separate federal AGI, additions to income, subtractions from income, deductions and exemptions. You must combine the separate amounts for each person before making entries on Lines 23-33 of the D-40.

DC tax, credits, and payments

The credits claimed on Lines 23, 24 and 25 are non-refundable, which means they can reduce the taxes you owe, but they will not result in a tax refund. The credits you claim on Lines 28, 29 and 30 are refundable credits, which means if these credits plus any tax payments are greater than your total tax due, you may receive a refund.

Line 23 Credit for child and dependent care expenses

Do not claim this credit if your filing status is married filing separately. If your status is married or registered domestic partner filing separately on the same return, you may claim the credit and divide it between spouses/domestic partners any way you wish.

If you were a full-year DC resident, to figure your DC credit, multiply by .32, the amount from federal Form 2441, Line 9. Enter the result on Line 23 of the D-40. (Do not use the DC Form D-2441.)

If you were eligible for the Child and Dependent Care Credit but did not claim it for federal purposes, complete the Federal Form 2441, multiply the result by .32 and claim the DC credit for child and dependent care expenses.
