Instructions for the D-40

To complete your D-40 return, you will need to do a series of calculations contained in these instructions and copy many of the line items and totals on your D-40. You may also need to attach DC schedules, forms and worksheets to your D-40 if you complete any of the DC forms. Unless instructed otherwise, if you complete any part of any Schedules H, I, N, S, or U, attach it to your return, in the order defined in General Instructions, page 16.

Schedule H, Homeowners and Renter Property Tax Credit.
This schedule allows eligible residents to claim a property tax credit against their DC income tax liability. The total 2017 federal adjusted gross income (AGI) of your "tax filing unit" cannot exceed $50,500 (under age 70) or $61,900 (age 70 or older). Do not claim this credit for an exempt property owned by a government, a house of worship or a non-profit organization. See Schedule H in this booklet.

Note: If you are filing a D-40, you must file DC Schedule H with it. If you are not required to file a D-40 (or D-40EZ), the DC Schedule H can be filed by itself.

Schedule I, Additions to and Subtractions from Federal AGI.
This schedule contains two calculations, one for additions and another for subtractions from federal AGI. See Schedule I in this booklet.

If you took the 30% or 50% federal bonus depreciation and/or the additional Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 179 expenses on your federal return, enter the total on Schedule I, Calculation A, Line 3.

Schedule N. DC Non-Custodial Parent EITC Claim.
Use this schedule to determine whether a non-custodial parent making court-ordered child support payments may claim the DC EITC. See Schedule N in this booklet.

Schedule S, Supplemental Information and Dependents.
If claiming dependents, use Schedule S to list each dependent's name, taxpayer identification number (TIN), relationship and date of birth (DOB). If filing head of household use Schedule S to report dependents or other qualifying non-dependent person. Do not include an exemption for the qualifying non-dependent person. Calculation G is used to determine the number of exemptions you may claim. Calculation J is used to determine the DC tax amount for married or registered domestic partners filing separately on the same return, or for married or registered domestic partners filing jointly on the same return when seeking injured spouse protection. You may also use Schedule S to claim an exemption for yourself or your spouse/registered domestic partner for being blind and/or over 65.

Schedule U, Additional Miscellaneous Credits and Contributions.
This schedule lists certain additional non-refundable and refundable credits you may be able to claim. It also lists several contributions funds to which you may wish to contribute. See Schedule U in this booklet.

Schedule U includes the amount DC domiciliary taxpayers may claim as a credit for individual income tax paid to other state(s) if the income taxed by that state is derived from that state and that income is of a kind taxed by DC. The tax paid to a state is the total state tax liability shown on the state tax return. (It is not the state withholding shown on your Form W-2.) The credit is limited to the rate of tax charged in the District. If you are a statutory resident, the state in which you are domiciled gives you a credit for the taxes paid to DC.

Complete Calculation K on page 23, to determine your out of state credit. Enter the credit amount on Schedule U, Part 1a, Line 2. If you paid tax to more than one state, enter the respective amounts and other state codes in the spaces provided.

Credit for certain DC Government employees who are DC residents and first-time DC homebuyers. This $2,000 credit is available to all DC government employees, employees of a DC public charter school, and any person who has accepted an offer to be a DC police officer, firefighter, emergency medical technician, public school teacher or a teacher at a DC public charter school who enrolled in the Employer Assisted Housing Program (EAHP) offered by the DC Department of Housing and Community Development. The credit is available for a 5-year period. This credit is being phased out and shall not apply to a home purchase with a settlement date after March 30, 2015. Enter $2,000 on Schedule U, Part 1a, Line 5.

No DC credit is allowed for any other tax imposed by a state, including the following:
• Corporate franchise tax;
• License tax;
• Excise tax;
• Unincorporated business franchise tax; and
• Occupation tax.

Non-refundable Credits - There are two non-refundable credits, which took effect in 2014, for alternative fuel vehicle conversion and infrastructure. See D.C. Code Sections 47-1806.12 and 47-1806.13. A credit up to 50% of the costs for purchase and installation of qualified alternative fuel storage and dispensing or charging equipment per qualified alternative fuel vehicle refueling property or private residence. The credit shall not exceed $1,000 per vehicle charging station for a private residence and $10,000 per qualified alternative fuel vehicle refueling property or vehicle charging station. The cost of the purchase of the land on which the refueling or charging station will be located or the construction or purchase of any structure is not included in the equipment or labor costs. The unused credit can be carried over for two future years.

If you are claiming one of these credits, complete the residential form, Alternative Fuel Vehicle Conversion and Infrastructure Credits available online only. Retrieve this form at MyTax.DC.gov by clicking on 'Forms', 'Alternative Fuel Vehicle Infrastructure and Conversion Residential Form' under Individual Income and Fiduciary Tax Forms and Publications; attach it to the D-40, Schedule U.

If gross income derived from the operation of an alternative fuel dispensing or charging station exceeds $12,000, you must file a DC Form D-30, Unincorporated Franchise Tax Return.

The non-refundable tax credit for farm to food donations has been repealed effective April 7, 2017. Individuals may only claim this credit for donations made between January 1, 2017 and April 7, 2017. See DC Code §47-1806.14. The credit is limited to 50% of the value of the contribution and cannot exceed $2,500 per taxpayer per tax year. The amount of the credit exceeding the tax due may be carried forward for 5 tax years. If the taxpayer elects to claim this credit, no deduction under DC Code §47-1803.03(b) shall be allowed on account of the contribution.

Personal Information. Refer to General Instructions page 8.

Filing for a deceased taxpayer. Fill in the oval for a deceased taxpayer at the top of the page of the D-40.

If a taxpayer died in 2017 or 2018 before filing a return, a return must be filed for that person. Complete a D-40 on the correct year's tax return and provide the deceased person's information, not your own. Do not adjust the deceased's income, exemptions or deductions to reflect the date of death, unless a D-41 is being filed for the remainder of the year after the date of death. Tax preparers, other than the surviving spouse/registered domestic partner, such as executors, attorneys, or other personal representatives, must attach letters of administration. If a refund is due, all tax preparers must attach a completed FR-147, Statement of Persons Claiming Refund Due a Deceased Taxpayer, found on MyTax.DC.gov and a copy of the death certificate. Do not use the federal form to request a DC refund. Refunds will be issued by paper check only.

Part-Year Residents

NOTE: A temporary absence (even a lengthy one) from your permanent home does not make you a part-year resident. If filing as a part-year resident, you will be given guidance for completing your D-40 throughout these instructions.

You are a part-year DC resident if, during the year, you moved out of DC with the intent to permanently leave or moved into DC with the intent to permanently stay.

A DC taxpayer present in DC for 183 days or more and not domiciled in DC during the tax year is a part-year resident for the period present in DC.

A DC taxpayer domiciled in DC during the tax year, is a full-time DC resident unless he or she changes domicile during the tax year. In such case, he or she will be a part-year resident for the period not domiciled in DC.

“Domicile” is where a person has his or her permanent home. To change domicile, you have to abandon the previous domicile and establish a new one in another state with the intent to remain.

If DC was your home or permanent residence for less than a year, fill in the oval on Line 2 of the D-40, complete the applicable month and day in the “from” and “to” boxes. Divide the number of days lived in DC by 365 (366 if leap year). Use that number (standard rounding to four decimal places) and multiply by your exemption, credit, additions or subtractions amount not previously prorated. Complete Calculation C for standard deduction and Calculation D for DC itemized deductions showing the type and amount of income received:

• During the time you resided in DC;
• During the time you were a non-resident; and
• The total income reported on your federal return.

Before completing the D-40, calculate the following:

• Income received when you were a resident of DC, and when you resided outside of DC; and
• Deductible expenses paid when you resided in DC and when you resided outside of DC. The same allocation is required for exemptions, credits, and other deductions.

If you received a state income tax refund while not a resident of DC; do not include it in DC income.

If you claimed itemized deductions on your federal income tax return, include, for DC purposes, only those relating to the time you were a DC resident. Your federal worksheet will assist you in completing Schedule I (Calculations A and B) and Calculation D (if applicable). Keep a copy of your worksheet, a copy of your tax return and all calculations.

If you resided in DC for only part of 2017, allocate your DC income and deductions attributable to the time of your DC residency. Also prorate your exemptions and credits by dividing the number of days you were a resident of DC by 365 (366 if leap year) and multiplying the result times the exemption/credit amount.

Example: *72 days of residency in DC divided by 365 (366 if leap year) equals 0.1973. As a joint taxpayer, your exemption amount is $3,550. Multiply $3,550 by 0.1973 and the result, $700 is the prorated amount for exemption.

Standard deduction for part-year DC residents. Adjust your standard deduction to reflect the number of months you were a DC resident. Complete Calculation C on page 24.

Itemized deductions for part-year DC residents. Effective January 1, 2011, DC Official Code §47-1803.03 (b-4) provides that certain DC itemized deductions of DC taxpayers with over $200,000 of DC AGI ($100,000 for a separate return filed by a married individual) will be limited. Reduce the DC itemized deduction amount by 5% of DC AGI in excess of $200,000 ($100,000 for a separate return filed by a married individual). The itemized deductions that are not subject to the 5% limitation are medical and dental expenses, expenses incurred in the production of investment interest and casualty or theft loss deduction.

If your DC deductions are limited and you were a part-year DC resident, complete Calculation D on page 24.

Number of exemptions for part-year DC residents. Reduce the full exemption amount to reflect the number of days you were a DC resident.

NOTE: Calculation G - Number of exemptions is on Schedule S - Supplemental Information and Dependents.

Credit for child and dependent care expenses for part-year DC residents. Complete the DC Form D-2441 and enter the amount from Line 5 on Line 22 of the D-40. Attach a copy of your DC Form D-2441.
