General Instructions:

For taxable years beginning after 2004, a refundable credit against individual or corporate income tax is available to resident taxpayers engaged in the business of farming who use anhydrous ammonia for agricultural purposes.

Section 44-53-375(E)(2)(a)(ii) requires consumers to reformulate anhydrous ammonia with an additive that will prevent conversion of its active ingredients into methamphetamine or related substances.

The amount of the credit is equal to the amount expended by the taxpayer in obtaining the additive.

Social Security Privacy Act Disclosure

It is mandatory that you provide your social security number on this tax form if you are an individual taxpayer. 42 U.S.C 405(c)(2)(C)(i) permits a state to use an individual's social security number as means of identification in administration of any tax. SC Regulation 117-201 mandates that any person required to make a return to the SC Department of Revenue shall provide identifying numbers, as prescribed, for securing proper identification. Your social security number is used for identification purposes.

The Family Privacy Protection Act

Under the Family Privacy Protection Act, the collection of personal information from citizens by the Department of Revenue is limited to the information necessary for the Department to fulfill its statutory duties. In most instances, once this information is collected by the Department, it is protected by law from public disclosure. In those situations where public disclosure is not prohibited, the Family Privacy Protection Act prevents such information from being used by third parties for commercial solicitation purposes.
