Instructions for Form IT-209

Claim for Noncustodial Parent New York State Earned Income Credit

General information

What is the noncustodial parent New York State earned income credit (noncustodial EIC)?

The noncustodial EIC is a credit that may be claimed by eligible taxpayers (see below) instead of the New York State Earned Income Credit (NYS EIC) claimed on Form IT-215, Claim for Earned Income Credit, or Form IT-209, Schedule B. The credit is available for tax years beginning before January 1, 2017.

Who is eligible to claim this credit?

You may claim the noncustodial EIC only if you meet all of the following conditions for the tax year. You must

- be a full-year New York State resident,
- be at least 18 years of age,
- be a parent of a minor child (or children) with whom you do not reside,
- have an order in effect for at least one-half of the tax year requiring you to make child support payments payable through a New York State Support Collection Unit (SCU) pursuant to Social Services Law section 111-h, and
- have paid an amount in child support at least equal to the amount of current child support you were required to pay by all court orders.

What is the amount of credit?

The amount of credit is equal to the greater of:

- 20% of the federal EIC that would have been allowed if the noncustodial child met the definition of a qualifying child, computed as if you had one qualifying child and without the benefit of the joint return phase out amount (even if your filing status is Married filing joint return); or
- 2.5 times the federal EIC that would have been allowed if you had satisfied the eligibility requirements, computed as if you had no qualifying children.

If the amount of the credit is greater than your tax liability, the excess may be refunded without interest.

How do I claim the noncustodial EIC?

You must file Form IT-209 with your NYS income tax return. If you have already filed your original return, you must file an amended NYS return and include Form IT-209 to claim the credit.

Eligibility verification

New York State will not allow a claim for the noncustodial EIC unless the Tax Department has received verification of eligibility from the Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance (OTDA) that you

- are a parent of a minor child who does not reside with you,
- have a child support order payable through a New York State SCU, and
- are current in your payments as required by that order.

The Tax Department receives this information automatically. The eligibility verification requires no action on your part.

How to appeal disallowance of the credit due to information provided by OTDA

If you are notified that you do not qualify for the noncustodial EIC based on information provided by OTDA, you have the right to request a review of your child support qualifications for the noncustodial EIC by the SCU to which you make payments as directed in your order of support.

To request an SCU review, call the Child Support Helpline (CSH) at 1 888 208 4485. The CSH will send you a form to complete and return to the appropriate SCU for the review. The SCU will conduct the review, send you a written determination, and a copy of the determination will be provided to the Tax Department. If the SCU has determined that you are qualified, the Tax Department will process your credit.

What if I am eligible for both the noncustodial EIC and the NYS EIC?

If you are eligible for the noncustodial EIC and claimed a federal EIC, complete Schedule B to determine which credit offers you a greater benefit, since you cannot claim both the noncustodial EIC and the NYS EIC.

Line instructions

See the instructions for your tax return for the Privacy notification, or if you need help contacting the Tax Department.

Schedule A – Noncustodial parent New York State earned income credit (noncustodial EIC)

Part 1 – Eligibility

If you answer No to any question on lines 1 through 7, or Yes to any question on lines 8, 9, or 10, stop; do not complete Form IT-209. You do not qualify for this credit.

Line 1 – To determine if you are a full-year resident of New York State, see the instructions for your income tax return.

Line 3 – In the spaces provided, list the information for up to three children who did not reside with you and were under age 18 on December 31. You are not required to include the child's social security number; however, leaving it blank may delay the processing of your return.

Line 7 – For the federal EIC, the Social Security Administration must issue a valid social security number (SSN). If Not Valid for Employment is marked on your social security card because the number was issued solely for you to apply for or receive a federally funded benefit, you are not eligible.

Line 10 – You cannot claim the noncustodial EIC if your investment income is more than $3,400. For most people, investment income is the total amount of the following:

- taxable interest income (from federal Form 1040A or Form 1040, line 8a);
- tax-exempt interest income (from federal Form 1040A or Form 1040, line 8b);
- ordinary dividends income (from federal Form 1040A or Form 1040, line 9a); and
- capital gains net income from Form 1040A, line 10 or Form 1040, line 13 (if more than zero).

For more information on what qualifies as investment income, see federal Publication 596, Earned Income Credit.

Part 3 – Earned income

Line 13 – Complete Worksheet A below to determine the amount to enter on line 13.

Nontaxable combat pay

If you were a member of the U.S. Armed Forces who served in a combat zone, certain pay is excluded from your income. See federal Publication 3, Armed Forces Tax Guide. You can elect to include this pay in your earned income when computing the EIC. Electing to include nontaxable combat pay may increase or decrease your earned income credit. Compute the credit with and without your nontaxable combat pay before making the election. The amount of your nontaxable combat pay should be shown on federal Form(s) W-2, box 12, with code Q. If you are filing a joint return and both you and your spouse received nontaxable combat pay, you can each make your own election.
