The number in Box 5 includes only the premiums for the retiree's basic health insurance, i.e., the Federal Employee Health Benefits (FEHB), and Medicare, Parts B and/or D...

If the retiree is also having Federal Dental, Federal Vision, or Federal Long Term Care insurance premiums deducted, these premiums will not be included in Box 5...

The only way to capture these other Schedule A deductions is to examine the retiree's Form RI 20-53, Notice of Annuity Adjustment, which was issued in the current tax year

Form CSA 1099R for retirees (US Government Civil Service)...

Every time there is an adjustment to a retiree's medical benefit costs, they will get a Form RI 20-53, Notice of Annuity Adjustment; such adjustments will normally take effect in February of the current tax year...

EXAMPLE: Tom dies and had elected a survivor annuity for his wife, Susie...

Susie would receive a CSF 1099R which, under typical circumstances, would amount to 55 percent of Tom's pension; Box 7 would be coded as a 4...

If Box 2a, Taxable amount, showed no number, you would calculate the pension exclusion using the Box 9b number as your starting point for the Simplified Method Worksheet
