Missing Your Form W-2?

IRS TAX TIP 2006-22

You should receive a Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, from each of your employers for use in preparing your federal tax return. Employers must furnish this record of 2005 earnings and withheld taxes no later than January 31, 2006 (if mailed, allow a few days for delivery).

If you do not receive your Form W-2, contact your employer to find out if and when the W-2 was mailed. If it was mailed, it may have been returned to your employer because of an incorrect address. After contacting your employer, allow a reasonable amount of time for your employer to resend or to issue the W-2.

If you still do not receive your W-2 by February 15th, contact the IRS for assistance at 1-800-829-1040. When you call, have the following information handy:

- The employer's name and complete address, including zip code, the employer's identification number (if known), and telephone number,
- Your name and address, including zip code, Social Security number, and telephone number; and
- An estimate of the wages you earned, the federal income tax withheld, and the dates you began and ended employment.

If you misplaced your W-2, contact your employer. Your employer can replace the lost form with a "reissued statement." Be aware that your employer is allowed to charge you a fee for providing you with a new W-2.

You still must file your tax return on time even if you do not receive your Form W-2. If you cannot get a W-2 by the tax-filing deadline, you may use Form 4852, Substitute for Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, but it will delay any refund due while the information is verified.

If you receive a corrected W-2 after your return is filed and the information it contains does not match the income or withheld tax that you reported on your return, you must file an amended return on Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return.

Forms 4852 and 1040X and their instructions are available on the IRS Web site, IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

Purpose of form. Form 4852 serves as a substitute for Forms W-2, W-2c and 1099-R and is completed by taxpayers or their representatives when (a) their employer or payer does not give them a Form W-2 or Form 1099-R and (b) when an employer or payer has issued an incorrect Form W-2 or Form 1099-R. Attach this form to your income tax return.

You should always attempt to get Form W-2 or Form 1099-R from your employer or payer before contacting the IRS or filing Form 4852. After February 14th, you may call the IRS at 1-800-829-1040 if you still have not received Form W-2 or Form 1099-R. Generally, do not file Form 4852 before April 15th. Employees affected by Hurricanes Katrina, Rita, and Wilma should call the IRS at 1-866-562-5227 for additional guidance.

If you received an incorrect Form W-2 or Form 1099-R, you should always attempt to have your employer or payer issue a corrected form before filing Form 4852.

Note. Retain a copy of Form 4852 for your records. Check your Social Security statement (received at least a full year after the date shown on Line 4) against Form 4852. If the earnings you reported on Form 4852 are not shown in the statement, you should contact SSA at the telephone number shown on the statement.

Will I need to amend my return? If you receive a Form W-2, Form W-2c, or Form 1099-R, after your return is filed with Form 4852, and the information differs from the information reported on your return, you must amend your return by filing Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return.

Instructions

Lines 1–3. Enter your name, social security number (SSN) and current address including street, city, state, and ZIP code.

Line 4. Enter the year you received taxable income from which federal income taxes were withheld and Form W-2 or Form 1099-R was not received or was incorrect.

Line 5. Enter your employer's or payer's name, address, and ZIP code.

Line 6. Enter your employer's or payer's identification number, if known. If you had the same employer or payer in the prior year, use the identification number shown on that Form W-2 or Form 1099-R.

Line 7(A)—Form W-2. Complete line 7(A) by entering information reported on Form W-2. If possible, use your final pay stub to complete Line 7(A). For additional information, get Form W-2 and the Instructions for Forms W-2 and W-3.

a—Wages, tips, and other compensation. Enter your total wages received (include wages, noncash income, tips reported, and all other compensation before deductions for taxes, insurance, etc.).

b—Social security wages. Enter your total wages subject to employee social security tax. Do not include social security tips and allocated tips.

c—Medicare wages and tips. Enter your total wages and tips subject to Medicare tax.

d—Advance EIC payment. Enter the total amount you received as advance earned income credit (EIC) payments.

e—Social security tips. Enter the tips you reported to your employer for the year. The total of lines b and e cannot exceed the social security wage base for the year reported in line 4. The total amount of tips received during the year should be included in line a.

f—Federal income tax withheld. Enter the amount of federal income taxes withheld from your wages for the year. This amount should not be reduced by advance EIC payments. Include the 20% excise tax withheld on excess parachute payments on this line.

g—State income tax withheld. Enter the amount of state income tax withheld from wages for the year. Enter the name of the state.

h—Local income tax withheld. Enter the amount of local income tax withheld from wages for the year. Enter the name of the locality.

i—Social security tax withheld. Enter the amount of social security tax withheld (not including the employer's share), including social security tax on tips. This amount should not be reduced by advance EIC payments.

j—Medicare tax withheld. Enter the amount of Medicare tax withheld (not including the employer's share). This amount should not be reduced by advance EIC payments.

Line 7(B)—Form 1099-R. Complete line 7(B) by entering information reported on Form 1099-R. If possible, use the distribution statement from your plan trustee to complete Line 7(B). For additional information, get Form 1099-R and the Instructions for Forms 1099-R and 5498.

1—Gross distribution. Enter the total amount you received for the year as a gross distribution.

2a—Taxable amount. Enter the taxable amount of your distribution.

2b—Checkboxes. Check only the box or boxes that apply to your situation.

Taxable amount not determined. Mark an "X" in this box if you are unable to compute your taxable distribution. If you mark this box, leave line 2a blank.

Total distribution. Mark an "X" in this box only if the payment shown on line 1 is a total distribution.

3—Capital gain (included in 2a). Enter the capital gain on your lump-sum distributions that you also included in line 2a. Only certain individuals can elect to treat lump-sum distributions as a capital gain on Form 4972, Tax on Lump-Sum Distributions. See the Instructions for Form 4972 for details.

4—Federal income tax withheld. Enter the amount of federal income tax withheld.

5—State income tax withheld. Enter the amount of state income tax withheld.

6—Local income tax withheld. Enter the amount of local income tax withheld.

7—Employee contributions. Enter your investment in the contract (after-tax contributions), if any, recovered tax free this year.

8—Distribution codes. Enter the distribution code or codes that apply. If you are reporting more than one code, separate the codes with a comma. See the Instructions for Forms 1099-R and 5498 for a complete list of codes. If your distribution was from an IRA, SEP, or SIMPLE plan, write "IRA," "SEP," or "SIMPLE" in the right margin.

Line 8. Explain how you determined the amounts on line 7(A) or 7(B). For example, tell us if you estimated the amounts, used your pay stubs, or used a statement reporting your distribution.

Line 9. Explain what you did to get Form W-2, Form 1099-R, or Form W-2c from your employer or payer.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on Form 4852 to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us the information. We need it to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law.

Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by section 6103. However, section 6103 allows or requires the Internal Revenue Service to disclose or give the information shown on your return to others as described in the Code. For example, we may disclose your tax information to the Department of Justice for civil and/or criminal litigation, and to cities, states, and the District of Columbia for use in administering their tax laws. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form vary depending on individual circumstances. For the estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making Form 4852 simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.
